

TRENDS IN INCIDENT INJURIES

During September 2006, 42,542 of 497,013 (8.6%) soldiers assigned to the Army had an injury requiring medical attention*

Rate of injury in the Army

Rate of injury in the Army compared to the Department of Defense

Rate of injury in the Army by anatomical region

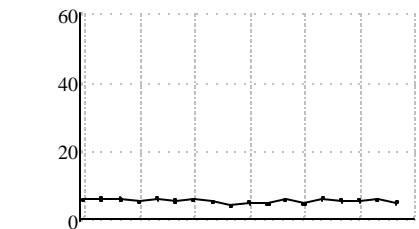

Head and Neck

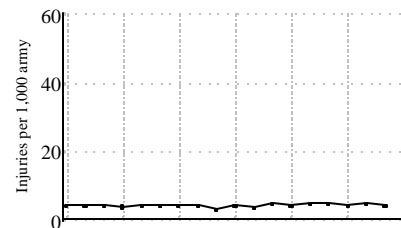

Shoulder and Arm

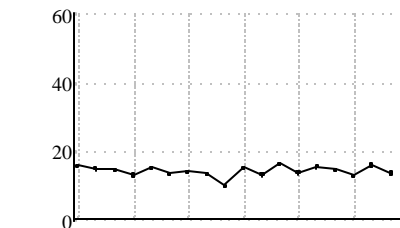

Hand and Wrist

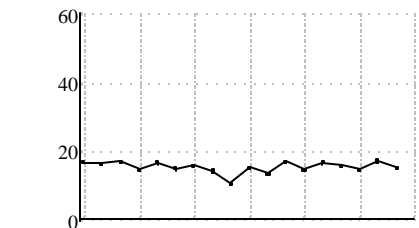

Leg

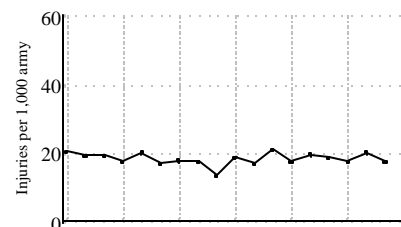

Knee

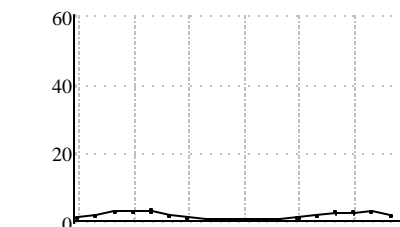

Ankle and Foot

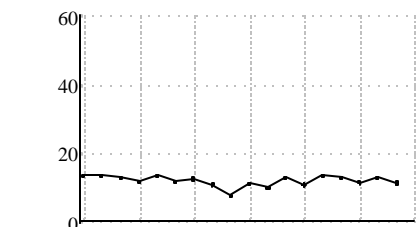

Trunk

Environmental

Other

* Medical encounters present in the military healthcare system, no duplicate 3-digit diagnosis in 30 days prior

 Weighted to account for differences in age, sex, and grade